BRIBERY SCANDAL GETS INTO COURT

Mississippi Senatorial Trouble Revived By Beginning of the Trial of L. C. Dulaney.

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Nov. 21.—An echo of the bribery scandal in connection with the election of a United States Senator by the Mississippi Legislature last spring was heard here today, when the case of L. C. Dulaney was called for trial.

the case of E. C. Trial.

Dulaney is charged with the alleged bribery of Theodore B. Billio, a member of the State senate, in the notable contest in the Legislature which resulted in the election of United States Senator Percy.

HANGMAN PRECEDES FOREIGN DIPLOMATS

OTTAWA, Optario, Nov. 21.—Taking the stand that they should precede the hangman of Carleton county in the order of reception at Earl Grey's drawing room, held on Saturday night, the consuls general of Italy, France, Germany, Russia, and the Netherlands and the consuls of the United States, Belgium, and Japan, refused to attend the function at all.

The matter is causing a large amount of comment, as this is the first time that a question of precedence of this kind has been raised, the governor general having just issued orders changing the old order of reception.
